

PRODUCT DESIGN MINOR

The Product Design Minor (PDM), within the Industrial Design Program, provides field knowledge for non-majors. These courses introduce product design skills and allow students to explore the fundamentals of human-centered design and product development.

Faculty Advisor: Stephanie Rufnio (<https://wit.edu/directory/stephanie-rufino/>) rufinos@wit.edu

Course	Title	Credits
To earn the minor, the student must pass the following required and elective courses:
Required/Core Courses:
INDS1850	VISUALIZATION 2: ADVANCED PERSPECTIVE	3
INDS2301	3D REALIZATION 1 FOR NON-MAJORS	4
INDS2501	STUDIO 4 FOR NON-MAJORS	4
Elective Courses - Students Select Any Two of the Following:
DSGN1100	DESIGN MAGIC	2
INDS3200	HUMAN FACTORS IN DESIGN	3
INDS4301	INFORMATION ARCHITECTURE 2 FOR NON-MAJORS	3
INDS4500	BUSINESS IN DESIGN	3
HIST4475	HISTORY OF DESIGN	4